WHO WE ARE

MAX REED – Cross-Border Tax Lawyer

Max can be reached at:

max@polaristax.com or 604-283-9301

Max solves US tax problems for Canadians including:

- Advising corporations on cross-border tax planning;
- Helping citizens in Canada deal with US tax issues including renouncing their US citizenship; and
- Advising Canadian investment funds on investments into the United States and receiving investments from US taxpayers.

Max is the co-author (with Dick Pound of Stikeman Elliot) of A Tax Guide for American Citizens in Canada, as well as over 20 technical and plain language articles on a wide range of cross-border tax topics. Recognized for his expertise, Max is often invited to speak at conferences and seminars for tax professionals and the general public. He was invited to testify before the Canadian House of Commons Finance Committee on the impact of US tax law on Canadians.

Prior to joining Polaris Tax Counsel, Max worked at White & Case LLP, an international law firm in New York City where he provided US tax advice to individuals, corporations, and foreign states and clerked for the Canadian Federal Court of Appeal.

He holds a BA and two law degrees from McGill University, where he won several academic and leadership awards and is admitted to the bars of BC and New York.
